

DIED.
At her residence in Holly Springs, of pulmonary disease, on the twenty-ninth of May, Mrs. SARAH ANN MASON, wife of W. F. MASON. Scarcely have two years rolled around since the dear was introduced into our village, the interesting bride of a devoted husband. And now she sleeps in the tomb! Alas! how vain are human expectations! It was well said, "that if a devoted husband's care and affection; a tender mother's love; if the tears and cries of sister and brother; if the deep and universal sympathy of the community, could have availed, this lovely woman had not died."

But she is gone, and no promethean fire can again her life relume. How great is the trial, to relations and friends, to give up one so lovely and interesting as the subject of this notice is. Since her residence among us, she has endeared herself to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, by her hospitable, mild, and gentle manner, unaffected, unassuming, refined and accomplished. She was an ornament to our society—and long will this community remember her many excellencies. But if our society mourns her loss, how exceeding painful must be her vacant seat to her bereft family! Who can fill that void? or what charm sooth the anguish of their grief? Nothing can reconcile them to their loss but time, and the consoling belief, that their loss has been her gain. May this distressing dispensation of Providence, teach them the uncertainty of all earthly happiness, and enable them to lay up treasure in Heaven where all is unfading and substantial joy.

The flower, that bloomed but to-day,
Already, lies strewn in death,
Its spirit, has left its frail clay,
To sparkle and live with its God.

A FRIEND.

PROSPECTUS

FOR PUBLISHING IN THE CITY OF JACKSON A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER TO BE ENTITLED

THE TRUE ISSUE

TO BE EDITED BY ALEXANDER K. MCLUNG

The late political contest, associated me temporarily with the press, and like most of those once drawn within the sphere of its attraction, I must acknowledge a disposition to continue the connection.

TIME OF PUBLICATION

The Casket is published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber consequently receives it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia, in all the principle cities agents have been established, by which means subscribers in the vicinity can obtain their copies free of postage.

TERMS—THREE DOLLARS per annum or two copies a year for five dollars, payable in ADVANCE, POST PAID. No new subscriptions received without the money, or the name of a responsible agent.

*Editors who may copy this Prospectus, and will send a copy marked with ink, addressed to the Saturday Evening Post (which will save the Publisher the postage on newspapers) shall be promptly furnished with the work. To be par- ticular in this matter, we should like a copy of the paper marked more than once, that no mistake or delay may occur. Editors are served with the Magazine from the time the advertisement is re- ceived. We mention this, as many insert the advertisement at the close of the last volume and expected all the back numbers. This, of course we could not expect to grant.

THE CASKET, AND PHILADELPHIA MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Unexampled success.

Prospectus for a New Volume.

The great subscription list of the Casket, which has been nearly doubled since the commencement of the last volume, warrants the most extensive improvements on the 1st of July, 1840—at which date a new volume will be commenced with new vigor. Nothing need be said of the firm basis on which the Casket stands, it being already the oldest Magazine in the country, and has maintained its popularity in the face of all opposition it is to be found on the centre table of all families making literary pretensions from Mobile to Georgia.

TYPE EMBELLISHMENT.

The Casket is printed with a clear and beautiful type, upon the finest white paper.

The illustrations are not surpassed by those of any other periodical at home or abroad, and besides the monthly steel engravings, a quarterly plate of colored fashions has been lately added. The style of these embellishments is unequalled, and they are always accompanied with an appropriate sketch. No wood cuts disgrace the work.

WHATSOEVER APPEARS IN THE CASKET IS THE FIRST ORDER OF ART.

The volume will be opened with the first of a series of splendid Mezzotint engravings, prepared expressly for the work, from the burin of Sariban, who deservedly stands as the best engraver of the kind in the United States.

LITERARY CHARACTER.

The literary character of the Casket is very well known. It is wholly original, and sustained by Writers of the first rank. Essays, Tales, Sketches, and Travels, compose its prominent articles, while the poetry is equalled by no other magazine of like character. The variety for which the Casket is celebrated, shall suffer no diminution, but on the contrary, every exertion shall be made to increase its interest.

SEVERAL ROMANCES ON THE REVOLUTION

have already appeared, and others shall in the course of the Volume, presenting, when finished, a complete account of all the great battles of that time. Thus, the Casket, instead of being filled with sickly sentimentalists, aims at a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion.

The series of Thrilling Nautical Sketches, entitled "Cruizing in the last war" and which are rated by the contemporary press, equal to the celebrated Sketches from "Tom Cringle's Log" will be continued, and the "Leaves from a Lawyer's Port Folio," which have attained a deserved celebrity, will still furnish attraction to the Magazine.

We shall furnish the readers of the Casket with valuable papers, from entirely new contributions.

The author of "Old Iron Sides on a Lea Shore," will give the first of a number of Sketches in the July number. We count on his prolific and graceful pen to do much in maintaining the great popularity of the Magazine. In addition to the variety already embraced in the pages of the Magazine, our "Letters from Palmyra," the first of which appeared in the June number as introductory, will interest and add mirth to its pages. They are rosin no unpractical pen.

FASHIONS.

The fashions are published quarterly in the Casket, or as often as any really new style, arrives from Paris. THE ENGRAVINGS ARE COLORED AND EXCECUTED FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS. No old worn out cuts are re-etched, and then published as the latest fashions. The truth of our designs may be tested by comparing them with the latest description of dresses from London and Paris. They are universally admitted to be the finest
